TRANSFORMING LIVES CHANGING THE WORLD

Acts 15:1

Certain individuals came down from Judea to Antioch and were teaching the believers: "Unless you are circumcised, according to the custom taught by Moses, you cannot be saved."

The Law has never been able to make people right with God
- it's always been a matter of having faith.

The Covenant (of faith)
with Abraham stands.
The Law was actually just a practical tool to limp people along until Jesus.

Galatians 2-3:

You don't have to be circumcised in order to be right with God – the Jerusalem apostles agree with me on this (even though Peter once had a wobble on it). Being made right God is and has always been a matter of faith, never a matter of keeping the OT laws.

What might God be saying to us?

What might God be saying to us?

Being right with him isn't something we earn!
