Joshua 3:1 to 5:12 [Page 207]

Early in the morning Joshua and all the Israelites set out and went to the Jordan, where they camped before crossing over.

After three days the officers went throughout the camp, giving orders to the people: “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, you are to move out from your positions and follow it.

Then you will know which way to go, since you have never been this way before.

Joshua told the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do amazing things among you.”

Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant and pass on ahead of the people." So they took it up and went ahead of them.

Tell the priests who carry the ark of the covenant: ‘When you reach the edge of the Jordan’s waters, go and stand in the river.’

So when the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead of them.

Now the Jordan is at flood stage all during harvest. Yet as soon as the priests who carried the ark reached the Jordan and their feet touched the water's edge, the water from upstream stopped flowing. So the people crossed over opposite Jericho.

The priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stopped in the middle of the Jordan and stood on dry ground, while all Israel passed by until the whole nation had completed the crossing on dry ground.

When the whole nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua, “Choose twelve men from among the people, one from each tribe ...

... and tell them to take up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, from right where the priests are standing, and carry them over with you and put them down at the place where you stay tonight.”

Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Command the priests carrying the ark of the covenant law to come up out of the Jordan.” So Joshua commanded the priests, “Come up out of the Jordan.”

And the priests came up out of the river carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD. No sooner had they set their feet on the dry ground than the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and ran at flood stage as before.

And Joshua set up at Gilgal the twelve stones they had taken out of the Jordan.

At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelites again.” So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelites.

On the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, while camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, the Israelites celebrated the Passover.

The day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land: unleavened bread and roasted grain.

The manna stopped the day after they ate this food from the land; there was no longer any manna for the Israelites, but that year they ate the produce of Canaan.

A photograph of a stack of five large, flat, light-colored stones balanced on a grassy hill. The stones are stacked vertically, with the top stone being the most prominent. The background shows a blue ocean under a clear sky. The text "What do these stones mean?" is overlaid on the right side of the image.

What do these stones mean?

He said to the Israelites, “In the future when your descendants ask their parents, ‘What do these stones mean?’ tell them, ‘Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.’”

Hi David

It occurred to me that you (someone) must record all of those amazing stories about you journey to your new building. They are truly faith building and examples of Gods wonderful provision. I had a dream of that story written on the walls of the entrance to your building, and it reaching out to people who need hope that God really does hear and answer prayer.
