

Acts 20

Paul traveled to Macedonia and while there, wrote again to the Saints in Corinth (2 Cor.).

Paul journeyed to Greece, where he remained for three months.

He was about to sail to Syria but decided to return through Macedonia first (Acts 20:1-3).

Paul restored the life of a young man named Eutychus (Acts 20:6-12).

In Miletus, Paul called for the elders of the church in Ephesus and when they came, he warned the Saints of apostasy. He told them that he must go to Jerusalem for Pentecost (Acts 20:13-38).

Paul performed many miracles, and the Church grew.

Worshippers of the Greek goddess Diana caused the people to riot against Paul and the Christians. Gaius and Aristarchus were taken by a mob but later released unharmed. Paul remained for about three years (Acts 19:1-41).

Paul visited and strengthened the Church in Galatia and Phrygia. Acts 18:23 ; Acts 19:1

On his way to Jerusalem, Paul visited the Saints in Tyre, where they stayed with Philip and his family and Caesarea, where they lodged with Mnason (Acts 21:1-15).

Paul's Third Missionary Journey

³² “Now I commit you to God and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

³³ I have not coveted anyone’s silver or gold or clothing.³⁴ You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions.

35 In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' ”

³⁶ When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down with all of them and prayed. ³⁷ They all wept as they embraced him and kissed him. ³⁸ What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.
